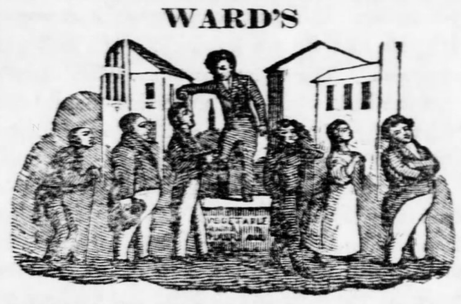
WARD'S



VEGETABLE HAIR OIL.

IN all ages of the world, a beautiful head of hair has been considered the greatest ornament ever bestowed by nature upon the human frame, and indispensably necessary to the perfection of personal beauty. It is a very general complaint of young persons, that their hair is falling off, becoming dry, or unhealthy; this may be owing to the application of improper and injurious oils, or to the entire neglect of the hair. Without proper attention, diseases of the hair will arise, which are often found to occasion thinness, falling off, and frequently total baldness. For these evils, and the necessary inconveniences attending them, Ward's Vegetable Hair Oil will be found in all cases a sure remedy. Before offering this Oil to the public it had been tried in hundreds of cases of baldness, thinness and falling off of the hair, and in every instance its salutary effects have been realized to admiration. It has never failed to produce a new and beautiful growth of hair on heads already bald, and to check that falling off which so often occurs. In cases where it becomes dry and ceases to grow, this Oil will very soon render it healthy, and produce a rapid and beautiful growth, without the least injury to the most delicate head; nor does any falling off follow after using it. That loss of hair, which so often takes place after sickness, may be easily prevented by using this celebrated Oil. In short no Oil has ever been offered to the public that gives such universal satisfaction, and stands the test of experience like Ward's Vegetable Hair Oil.

That the public may rest assured of the salutary effects of this Oil, the following testimonials, from gentlemen of high respectability, are most respectfully submitted:—

Extract of a letter from John A. Wadsworth, M. D., of the city of Providence, R. I. to W. & L. Krumbhaar & Co., of Philadelphia.

Gentlemen: Dr. Ward's Vegetable Hair Oil has gained great repute with us, having restored Hair on heads that have been bald for years, and I have no doubt it will give satisfaction wherever it may be introduced.

Very respectfully,
JOHN A. WADSWORTH.

Messrs. STANLEY & Co., of Baltimore, in writing to Mr. HUNTON, Druggist, in Washington City, say, 'That Letters to them from Druggists in Boston, describe Ward's Hair Oil as being highly approved of there, and selling with astonishing rapidity.

Extract of a letter from Harvey Seymour, Druggist, Hartford, Ct., to the Proprietor, dated Hartford, Sept. 14, 1832.

Dear Sir: I find your Hair Oil a valuable article; I was so unfortunate as to lose the Hair from the top of my head, and, from the use of about half a bottle, I find it starting out anew.

HARVEY SEYMOUR.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27, 1832.

Dr. WARD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Oil, you were good enough to put into my hands when I was in Lowell, has produced the most wonderful effects on my Hair that I ever witnessed. You recollect when I called on you, my Hair had fallen very much, and I was quite bald; I have now a beautiful head of Hair, coming on very rapidly. I hardly know how to express my gratitude to you for the benefit the Oil has afforded me. A number of my friends are very anxious to obtain some of the Oil, and I wish you to send me one dozen bottles of the largest size immediately.

Yours, respectfully,
C. WOOD, M. D.

Extract of a letter from Dr. John A. Wadsworth, of Providence, to the Proprietor.

Esteemed Friend: Your Hair Oil is attended with very promising effects. One of our most respectable citizens, who had been bald for ten years, with a skin as smooth and free from hair as the palm of his hand, has been using the Oil, and fine hair is now coming out on every part of the previously bald scalp.

Yours, respectfully,
JOHN A. WADSWORTH.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1, 1832.

I certify that about fifteen years ago, my hair began to fall off, and in a few years became so thin that I found it a source of great inconvenience. On seeing Ward's Vegetable Hair Oil advertised in several New York papers, and highly recommended by two medical gentlemen, with whom I was acquainted, I was induced to make trial of it. When I commenced the use of it, I very much doubted its efficacy in my case, having been bald so many years. But I had not tried it long, before I found it to possess the properties which had been attributed to it. I have now as good and healthy a head of hair as I had twenty five years ago. I can cheerfully recommend it to others who have had the misfortune to lose their hair.

G. W. CUNNINGHAM.

BOSTON, Nov 3, 1832.

Dr. WARD—Sir: A friend of mine had a bottle of your Hair Oil put into his hand, and using it a short time, the hair began to grow on his head, which was before bald, and he had tried many other remedies in vain.

Yours, respectfully,
C. E. ALLEN.

DAILY PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON, AUGUST 3, 1833.

☞Advertisements for this paper must be handed in before 9 o'clock, A. M., each day respectively, to insure their insertion.

IMPROVEMENT OF THE MONONGAHELA.—We some time since published an article, from the Union Town Democrat, in relation to this matter, but neglected to call the attention of our readers particularly to it. Since that time, however, we perceive that the citizens of Monongalia county, Virginia, and the counties of Greene and Fayette, in this State, are up and doing. The two former counties have already appointed delegates to a Convention, to be held at Greensboro, Green county, on the first Monday in September, to consider and devise the necessary measures to ensure the prosecution of this important work.—Is it not very proper that Pittsburgh and Allegheny county should also be stirring in this matter? She is certainly much interested in this proposed improvement. Her inactivity, just now, will not merely damp the ardor and zeal of the other counties, and weaken the influence of their exertions, but will also afford a powerful argument to the enemies of the improvement, by permitting them to say that Pittsburgh is indifferent, because she considers the proposed work as useless, or impracticable.

We, some time ago, received a letter from a gentleman in Greene county, urging the appointment of delegates, and even mentioning the name of one gentleman, whose appointment would be very desirable. We, however, did not publish this letter, because we knew that the gentleman could not attend. Still, although the gentleman referred to could not probably attend, conveniently yet others can, and we trust our citizens will feel the propriety of having a meeting, at an early day, to choose the necessary number of delegates.

THE PITTSBURGH MERCURY.—We have read, some where, the story of a person whose intellect was somewhat deranged, strolling into a church where a preacher, who was noted for delivering sermons extracted from the productions of distinguished and eloquent clergymen, was preaching. The visitor took his seat in a conspicuous part of the church, and listened very attentively. At the first pause in the discourse, he exclaimed, in a loud voice—"that's from Massillon"—at the next pause, he cried out, "that's from Bourdaloue;" and, successively, at different pauses, exclaimed, "that's from Fenelon"—"that's from Blair."—The preacher at length, being provoked beyond all endurance, exclaimed—"Turn out that blackguard." The deranged man now cried out, "That's original, that's your own."

So we say, to Mr. Joseph Snowden, in relation to the following ridiculous paragraph, in the last Mercury—"That's original; that's your own"—Grammar, English, sycophancy, and all—all your own.

"The Gazette.—We are sorry to see that the editor of the Gazette has become the copyist of the notorious Stephen Simpson, and is unceasing in his abuse of the venerable father of democracy, Thomas Jefferson. We can hardly conceive of the malignity of an editor who could thus wantonly tear open the tomb and attack, in so ferocious a manner, the memory of one of the purest patriots that ever breathed—one who has been instrumental in obtaining the independence of our beloved and happy country. Mr. Craig is an Antimasonic editor, and if he is actuated by political motives, we think he will fall far short of his objects. The people, we hope, will ponder deeply before they can be induced to give their support to a party which depends upon such base support for existence."

At length the Pennsylvania Advocate contains something like a reply to the article in our paper, of Wednesday, and a miserable one it is, too.—After sending all the way to Steubenville, to get an article written, we had reason to expect the best reply that circumstances would afford, and probably we have got it—but it is truly a poor one.

In the whole of his article, there is not one word about the Mazzei letter, which the editor of the Advocate had previously denied to be genuine.—Not an effort, not one word to sustain this denial, and no display of sincerity, by an admission that he was mistaken, although the evidence was conclusive. The previous assertion of the editor of the Advocate, though manifestly incorrect, is permitted to go to his readers without correction; without modification, or alteration.

The editor of the Advocate boldly declares that our styling Bache's office a "workshop of calumnies and falsehoods," was a mere "random assertion," although we gave two extracts from the letters of Washington, one declaring that some publications in Bache & Freneau's papers, were "outrages upon common decency," and the other, intimating that the language applied to the father of his country, "were two exaggerated and indecent" to be applied to a "common pickpocket." We think when we make assertions upon such authority as George Washington's, that they are not "random assertions." Does the editor of the Advocate doubt the truth of Washington's statements? We would like to have an answer to this question.

As to the hiring of Callender, we are perfectly willing to let the public judge of the truth of the charge, upon Mr. Jefferson's own statement. Is there an honest man among us who is credulous enough to believe that Mr. Jefferson would twice contribute money (fifty dollars each time) to publish a book, while he believed that Callender's writings were injuring his party, and at the time when he wished his "pen stopped," from mere charity.

The editor of the Advocate, after republishing our article in which we give Simpson's words about Duane, says, "The reader can judge, whether the part of the above article that speaks of the calumniators of Washington, is or is not an extract from Simpson's book." This is a pretty distinct intimation that our statement, as to this point, is not true. If any of our readers, or any other person should be disposed to doubt the correctness of our extract, we will only refer them to the last page of Simpson's sketch of the life of Washington, and last sentence but one, where he will see that our quotation is literally correct.

This resort to insinuation, where facts and arguments do not suit, is nothing new with a certain set of editors.

The intimation that the account of the battle of Little Meadows was published in Bache's paper as "a matter of comment"—"as a matter of news," requires a few remarks.

As to its being published "as a matter of news," it is only necessary to inform the editor of the Advocate that the battle of Little Meadows took place in 1754, and the republication of the French account was made some forty two or forty three years after. It is true, however, as the Advocate suggests, that it was published as "a matter of comment." The object was, to use Washington's own words, to create the impression that he was "the enemy of one nation, and subject to the influence of another."

We have preferred making this hasty reply to the article in the Advocate of this morning, rather than waiting for another day. The paragraph in the Advocate is so weak and ridiculous, and the reply to it so clear and obvious, that we have no desire to sleep upon it. We will, perhaps, be enabled to get some of the infamous calumnies of Bache upon Washington, and will then republish some of them. We have a full recollection of many of them, but will not quote from memory.

Extracts from Polynisian Researches—by W. Ellis—Published by J. & J. Harper, N. York.

Tides.—Among the natural phenomena of the South Sea Islands, the tide is one of the most singular, and presents as great an exception to the theory of Sir Isaac Newton as is to be met with in any part of the world. The rising and falling of the waters of the ocean appear, if influenced at all, to be so in a very small degree only, by the moon. The height to which the water rises varies but a few inches during the whole year, and at no time is it elevated more than a foot, or a foot and a half. The sea, however, often rises to an unusual height, but this appears to be the effect of a strong wind blowing for some time from one quarter, or the heavy swells of the sea, which flow from different directions, and prevail equally during the time of high and low water. But the most remarkable circumstance is, the uniformity of the time of high and low water. During the year, whatever be the age or situation of the moon, the water is lowest at six in the morning and the same hour in the evening, and highest at noon and midnight. This is so well established, that the time of night is marked by the ebbing and flowing of the tide; and, in all the Islands, the term for high water and for midnight is the same.

Inhabitants.—The islands of the Pacific are inhabited by two tribes of men, totally distinct, & in some respects entirely different from each other. The most ancient tribe is composed of what are designated ocean negroes, who are distinguished by the darkness of skin, smallness of stature, and particularly by their woolly or crisped hair. The other tribe exhibits many of the distinguished features which belong to the physical character of the Malayan and original American tribes. The former race more properly belong to Australasia, as by them New Holland, New Guinea, New Britain, New Caledonia, and the New Hebrides are peopled, while on one of the islands, still farther to the westward, both tribes take up their abode, and yet remain distinct; the oceanic negroes dwelling in the interior, and among the mountain fastnesses, while those of a fairer complection form their settlements along the shore. In the vicinity of the Friendly Islands they appear to be blended. The greater part of Polynesia appears to be inhabited by those who present in their physical character many points of resemblance to the Malays and S. Americans, but yet differ materially from either, and seem to form an intermediate race.

It is a remarkable thing to find a system of enumeration so ingenious as that described below, among such a simple people as the Polynesians:

Their acquaintance with an extensive use of numbers under these circumstances is still more surprising. They did not reckon by forties, after the manner of the Mexicans and Sandwich Islanders, but had a decimal method of calculation. These numerals were,

Atabi, one.	Aono, six.
Arua, two.	Ahitu, seven.
Atora, three.	Avaru, eight.
Amaha, four.	Aiva, nine.
Arima, five.	Ahuru, ten.

Eleven would be Ahuru matahi, ten and one; and so on to twenty, which was simply Erua ahura, two tens; twenty one, two tens and one; and proceeded in this way till ten tens, or one hundred, which they called a Rau. The same method was repeated for every successive rau, or hundred, till ten had been enumerated, and these they called one Mano, or thousand. They continued in the same way to enumerate the units, ahurus, or tens; raus, or hundreds, and minos, or thousands, until they had counted ten minos, or thousands; this they called a Manotini, or ten thousand. Continuing the same process, they counted ten manotinis, which they called a Rehu, or one hundred thousand. Advancing still farther, they count ten rehus, which they call an Iu, which was ten hundred thousand, or one million.

They had no higher number than the iu, or million; they could, however, by means of the above terms or combinations, enumerate with facility, tens, hundreds, thousands, tens of thousands, or hundreds of thousands, or millions.

The precision, regularity, and extent of their numbers has often astonished me; and how a people having, comparatively speaking, but little necessity to use calculation, and being destitute of knowledge of figures, should have originated and matured such a system, is still wonderful, and appears more than any other fact to favor the opinions that these islands were peopled from a country whose inhabitants were highly civilized.

General Theological Seminary.—In the exercise of the power vested in them by the Board of Trustees, "to provide as far as practicable for more frequent exercises among the students of the Seminary, in composition and declamation, and for their further instruction in Pulpit Eloquence and Pastoral Theology, and in Ecclesiastical History," the Standing Committee have made temporary provision for instruction in those branches of study, by appointing the Rev. Dr. Wainwright Professor of Pastoral Theology and Pulpit Eloquence, and the Rev. Dr. Hawks, Professor of Ecclesiastical History. We have much pleasure in announcing that both gentlemen have accepted the appointments, and will commence their discharge of the duties thus devolved upon them, with the re-opening of the Seminary, in October next.

The Church will be in no small degree indebted for this increase of the usefulness of its Seminary, by the accession of valuable professional services, on terms the same as those on which the Professorship of Church Polity has so long been filled—gratuitous labor cheerfully rendered 'for the work's sake.'—Churchman.

The French Journal, the Revue Encyclopedique in speculating upon the anticipated disunion of the United States, which foreign politicians are so ready to foresee, calculates largely upon the preponderance which France will obtain among the fragments, by her powerful national associations in Canada and Louisiana. The port of New Orleans, especially, is held up as one of incalculable importance "to France" whenever, after the dissolution of the Union, the "descendants of the French colonists will again become the sole and only masters of these outlets." These speculations are founded upon the state of public affairs here during the South Carolina controversy at the late session of Congress, and though the immediate ground of them is taken away, yet they are proofs of the ambitious calculations which are constantly made in Europe, upon the consequences of our domestic dissensions and of their own aggrandizement, at our expense, if we shall ever be so infatuated as to separate. The New Orleans Bee has noticed these foreign views with a proper spirit, and while it denounces the "treasonable" attempts which gave our watchful enemies such grounds for insulting projects of gain by our distractions, pronounces all ideas that are based upon a probable desertion of this government by the Creoles of Louisiana, for any other, to be "chimerical and wild."—Balt. Amer.

A good new Nose.—A medical gentleman yesterday came into our office with an acquaintance whom he introduced as having just been furnished with a nose. Upon a second look we perceived that the nose had a strong scar upon each side of it. To be short, it was made of a thin plate of silver, painted to correspond with the countenance, and fastened in its place by two claws, one of which rests upon each of the real nostrils, the top being held fast by a pair of spectacles. The fastenings though somewhat uncomfortable for a while, have been found in other cases, at least to become easy. It is the work of our ingenious citizen Reubens Peale, whose museum is so justly celebrated. The individual who wore this nose, was so entirely changed by it in his appearance, that his acquaintances sat by him as usual at the boarding house breakfast table without knowing him. There is one advantage which a silver nose has over one of gristle, it is not so liable to turn red.—In every respect it is better than no nose at all by a difference not to be sneezed at.—N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

The Editors of the Lowell Journal are getting frantic these dog days. They talk thus:

WIFE—There is no combination of letters in the English language, which excites more pleasing and interesting associations in the mind of man, than the word wife. There is magic in this little word. It presents to the mind's eye, a cheerful companion, a disinterested adviser, a nurse in sickness, a comforter in misfortune, and a faithful and ever affectionate friend. It conjures up the image of a lovely, tender, confiding woman who cheerfully undertakes to contribute to your happiness—to partake with you the cup, whether of weal or wo, which Destiny may offer. The word wife is synonymous with the greatest earthly blessing; and we pity the unfortunate wight who is condemned by Fate's severe decree to trudge along through life's dull pilgramage without one.

Mail Boats on Lake Pontchartrain:—The New Orleans Courier of Saturday 13th, ult. says:

"The U. S. Mail Line of Steam boats, that carry the mail between this place and Mobile, have both burst their boilers! The accident occurred to one in the beginning of the week, and to the other yesterday—we understand the engineer was killed, and 2 other men slightly wounded. The contractors we hope, will immediately supply their places."

Having observed, during the past year, that steam boats on the Lake are peculiarly liable to damage, by running aground, (mostly in the night;) cannot this hazard be removed by building light boats of little draught? Such might run constantly without risk or interruption.—Bulletin.

Auraria, (Geo.) July 16.—Lot No. 1052, in the 12th District, 1st Section, was sold by the drawer a few days since for $30,000 to Maj. Moseley, of Green county. The purchaser was in possession at the time of the sale, where he had been operating very successfully for a few weeks, under a lease.

A beautiful specimen was found at the Allatoona Mines, in Cass County, ten or twelve days since; a rock which weighed twenty eight pounds; with particles of gold so richly interspersed through it, as to command an offer of one hundred dollars, from a gentleman present at the time of its discovery; which offer was refused by the finder, who being like a great many others, in debt, soon had it taken from his possession by a constable, who held an execution against him, and the same is now advertised to be sold at Constable's sale, and will go to the payment of the finder's debts, provided the owner of the land upon which it was found does not interpose a claim.

Colonel William Wynne was offered and refused $8000 for the beautiful and accomplished Mary Randolph, who at present is enjoying "life in New York."—Rutherfordton, N. C. Spectator.

The Pennsylvanian supposes that Mr. Amos Kendall may be the Bank Agent appointed by the Government to sound the State Banks as to their capacity to serve the Government, &c. &c. Not unlikely.

The last Edinburgh New Philosophical Journal (Jameson's) contains an account, which was read before the Royal Society of Edinburgh, of an ingenious apparatus for maintaining an Uniform Temperature.—Nat. Gaz., July 30.

It appears that Bishop Doane was not present at Clough's execution. The Rev. Messrs. Morehouse and Wilmer were selected, by Clough, as his spiritual friends, and by them the exercises were performed.—Nat. Gaz.

Some improvements have been made by Dr. Smith, of Washington city, in the properties and modus operandi of the magnetic needle, the importance and success of which have been practically observed and publicly attested by Captain Kennedy, of the U. S. Frigate Java.—Nat. Gaz.

FRANKLIN, (Tenn.) July 12.—Capt. Silas Stephens has shown us a quantity of very handsome, home manufactured sewing silk, made at his farm in this county. It is by far the best specimen of the domestic article which we have yet seen, and for strength, or service, is fully equal to the best Italian. From the progress already made in this manufactnre, we have no doubt but that in a very short time, it will become a prominent branch of American industry, and be able to compete successfully with the foreign article.

U. S. schr. Porpoise.—A letter from Lieutenant McIntosh to the Secretary of the Navy announces his arrival at Pensacola, on the 12th ult. from the Cuba station, in consequence of the yellow fever and cholera appearing on board. Of the former, there were seven, and of the latter two cases. On leaving the coast of Cuba, the sick rapidly recovered, with one exception, a boy, who died of the fever. But four cases remained at the above date, one of whom had previously been an invalid, and the others are out of danger.

The Weather.—The Richmond Whig, of Friday, concludes an article relative to the weather, as follows:—"Many bets of a small amount were made by a gentleman of this city, that it would rain upon the 25th inst., and the event justified his opinion. He says that it has never failed to do so for the last 17 years. A gentleman in the county of Goochland, has a standing bet which has been continued for twelve or fifteen years, that it will rain the first Saturday in every August, all of which he has won except in one instance. These are singular facts, which deserve the attention of the wise and learned."—Baltimore Patriot, July 29.

The amount appropriated by the City Councils of New York, for the financial expenses of the city, during the next year, is $1,544,757 56—five times as much as those of some of the largest States of the Union.

There are two ships on the stocks, near Portland, building side by side—one of which has received the name of Major Jack Downing, and the other the President.

In my younger days, I was much inclined to treat mankind with asperity and contempt; but I found it answered no good end. I thought it wiser and better to take the world as it goes.—Johnson.

Baltimore bids fair to be as celebrated for her ship building as for her monuments. 'Tis well—we never view with envious chagrin the successful emulation a rival city; for

All are but parts of one stupendous whole.
The whole union is benefited when any part of it becomes prosperous or properly distinguished.

In Character.—At Granby, South Carolina, on the 4th of July, the proclamation of Gov. Hayne was read, in lieu of the Declaration of Independence!

A challenge, publicly offered, by the friends of Senator Poindexter, of Mississippi, has been accepted by Henry S. Foote, Esq. of Clinton, in that State to discuss Mr. Poindexter's Senatorial conduct before the people.

A Seizure.—The police magistrates succeeded yesterday in getting possession of a number of copies of an obscene and demoralizing work, which had been recently stereotyped & republished in this country. What adds to the value of the seizure is the fact, that they at the same time obtained possession of all the plates from which the edition was printed. They were taken to the police office, where it is proposed to subject the whole to the operation of a purifying element.—N. Y. Courier.

There are some who are good in canvasses and factions, who are otherwise weak men. Nothing doth more hurt in a state, than that cunning men pass for wise.—Bacon.

Mexico.—Accounts from Tampico have been received, via New Orleans, to July 4th. That place had been in a state of great excitement for several days, owing to information having been received that the garrison at Metamoras had declared in favor of the plan of Morelia, and that it had despatched a body of troops to take possession of Tampico, who had already arrived within a day's march of it. Tampico was in a poor state of defence, but every preparation was making to prevent their entry. The Cholera had entirely disappeared from Tampico. A Conducta had arrived there on the 28th of June with $700,000.

The New Orleans Advertiser, of the 15th ult., says—"We understand that nearly four hundred and fifty thousand dollars have been received in this city since Saturday, from Tampico and Matamoras."—Poulson.

The London Morning Herald states, that it is reported, upon good authority, that Mr. and Miss Fanny Kemble have, by their united performances in America, cleared £12,000—nearly $60,000!

A company is being formed for the purpose of constructing steam boats to run on the Susquehanna, between Oswego, N. Y., and the coal mines near the mouth of the Lackawana, Pa.

The Argan Gazette contains a document, dated 15th May, addressed by the Germanic Diet of Frankfort to the Helvetian Confederation at Zurich, in which, after representing the Polish refugees as revolutionists, who would stir up an insurrection in all Germany, it calls upon the Confederation to prevent Switzerland being made the focus of a conspiracy, which would force the Diet to take immediate measures for its own safety.

On the 2d of June, at Paris, a bronze statue of Napoleon, made of sixteen cannon, captured during his reign, was most successfully cast. A number of distinguished men of science and letters, and the Minister of Commerce and the heads of the public works, were present at the process. The statue is eleven French feet high, and in Napoleon's usual dress or drapery—uniform, three cocked hat, eye glass, sword, spurs—so as to produce an exact resemblance in the tout ensemble. It was to be placed on the great column in the place Vendome. Such an example confirms the propriety of exhibiting Stephen Girard as he was, in his common attire and bearing.—Nat. Gaz.

From the Uniontown Democrat.

FAYETTE SPRING:

Situate in the Mountains, on the East side of the Laurel Hill, in Fayette county, Pa., 8 miles east from Uniontown, and about one third of a mile from the great National Road.

The water of this spring has been analyzed, and found to possess qualities highly medicinal. Its location is in a deep glen, and the surrounding scenery is grand and picturesque—nature's wildness, just sufficiently modified by cultivation, to relieve the monotony.

The mountain air is of that pure, bracing kind, that comes upon the care and disease worn frame, like a fountain in the desert to the fainting wanderer,—a very seasonable and effectual relief.

The Hotels near the spring,—Wiggins' and Downer's, are of the best class, very capacious and well furnished. Their tables are well supplied,—if not with the enervating luxuries of the city, with mountain luxuries, just the kind that please the palate, while they impart health and vigor to the whole system. Every desirable accommodation is enjoyed, and on very reasonable terms.

The National Road is now being put in fine order. Three lines of stages run upon it, passing the hotels, from the east and the west, four or five times every day.

If curiosity prompt, the visitor can, at two miles distance from the spring, view the grave of Braddock, and trace the road by which his army marched to their field of death. At a farther distance of one mile, he can trace, in a meadow of Mount Washington farm, the lines of Fort Necessity, where the youthful valor and prudence of our Country's Father, gave the earnest of his future glorious success.

A few miles north east of the spring, by a delightful mountain ride, the admirer of nature's works may be gratified with a view of the "Ohio Pyle Falls" of the Youghiogheny river,—a very imposing sight.

Sporting propensities can be indulged by a great variety of game, from the fox to the pheasant. Abundance of trout exist in the runs and creeks in the vicinity,—the catching of which is "capital sport;" the gust of eating them is known only in the act; pen and ink cannot describe it.

In short, taking together the spring—the air—the hotels—the conveniences of arrival and departure—the objects of curiosity and admiration—the game and its attendant amusements, few places of summer resort, if any, so strongly invite a visit and a few weeks stay, as does the Fayette Spring. If the female, enervated by the parched and foul air of the city or town, wishes to regain her healthful glow and pulse, let her visit the Fayette Spring. If the man of business seeks a respite from anxiety, and desires to repossess that vigor of nerve, and fulness of muscle, of which care and exertion have deprived him,—let him repair, for a few weeks, to the Fayette Spring, in the mountains, where care and the pestilence may not reach him.

Several families and individuals from Pittsburgh, Wheeling, Greensburgh, Uniontown, and elsewhere, have already been in attendance, and all concur in the representations here given, and have determined to make the Fayette Spring a stated summer resort. Other visitors are daily expected. A VISITOR.

The London Examiner had openly attacked the House of Lords. "The people have now sufficient evidence of its character, and it becomes their intelligence not to scold, but to judge. The House of Lords can only be desirable as an instrument of good government. If it be absolutely opposed to good government—if it work against its object, it must be withdrawn from the Constitution, whose purpose it has ceased to serve.—Nat. Gaz.

From the New York Spectator.

Extracts from the Review of the New York Market, for the week ending July 27.

REMARKS.—By the tenor of all the foreign advices, it appears that the exports from this country are in a most flourishing state. Considering the usual dull season, the business doing is considerable. Hops have risen higher than has ever been known. The money market being again relieved, the operations in Stock have been extensive. There is no demand for specie for export; about one hundred thousand dollars have been taken to Canada.

COFFEE.—There have been but few transactions in this article since our last report, and notwithstanding the favorable advices from Europe, but few exporters appear in the market. The only sale of importance, which we have noticed, consists of 1400 bags St. Domingo, fair quality, on speculation, at 12c. cash. There have been parcels of La Guayra, sold at 13 a 13 1-4; Sumatra, 12¼; Mocha, 16; Cuba, from 10 1-2 a 12 1-2; and from 500 a 600 Brazil from 12 3-4 a 12 1-4, at 4 months.

FLOUR.—We have rarely witnessed so much uniformity in price, in this market, as during the past month; there has not, during that period, been a shilling variation—the only change has been in the demand. Some days there has been considerable activity, and then but little demand. During the early part of the present week the sales were very moderate; yesterday there was more doing—common western at 5 62, and in some cases 5 56; choice brands 5 75; Ohio, via canal, 5 44 a 5 47. All southern flour keeps up, owing to the limited stock; sales of 500 brls., Howard street, at 6 37 1-2—Georgetown 6 a 6 25; Alexandria 6 a 6 12; Troy, flat hoops, 5 62.

SUGARS.—Our market is in a very firm and active state, and all advices from abroad seem to keep prices up. The demand in this market continues active, and all muscovados are taken as fast as landed at former rates. Considering the season and stock on hand, the transactions have been large, about 2000 boxes of Cuba, of which 1500 browns were sold at 8 to 8 1-2, and one lot of 100 boxes choice at 8 1-2, the whites, at 9 3-4 a 10 1-2. In Porto Rico about 400 hhds. and all in first hands, except those held by one house, have been taken at 8 a 8 3-4 cts. St. Croix at 8 a 10.

WOOL.—Our market is in a very firm state; pulled has advanced 3 cents. Extensive operations have been made in the country, and all fleece wool is bought up, as fast as it arrives, at fair prices.—A sale of 150 bales Buenos Ayres has been made at 9 1-2 cts.

MONEY.—There is no longer any pressure on the money market. The large amount of moneys locked up in the new Rail Road and Insurance companies have been distributed. The Banks discount with freedom, and Exchange and Stocks generally have improved.

STOCKS.—The London advices to the 13th June quoted American Bank Stock at £24 a £24 5—with dividend from 1st Jan.: which, calculating Exchange at 8 per cent., and deducting 3 1-2 per cent. for dividend, will leave the net proceeds at 111 1-2 a 112 per cent. As might be expected this has sustained the stock in this market, notwithstanding the reports of a withdrawal of the deposites. The operations have been very large, about 5000 shares; it began at 109 and left off at 110. All local Bank and Insurance Company Stocks have rather improved, owing to the money market becoming more easy. Most of the Rail Road Stocks are lower; Mohawk, which was 132, has declined to 128; Utica has declined one per cent.; Harlæm 92 a 93; Manhattan Gas has declined about three per cent.—Dai. and Mer. Adv.

Western Collegiate Institute,

FOR YOUNG LADIES,

NEAR PITTSBURGH,

UNDER the superintendence of WILLIAM B. LACEY, D. D., with arrangements of increased efficiency, will commence it Autumnal Session, on the First Monday in September next.

In the Senior department, Dr. Lacey, with competent Assistants, will hear recitations in Mathematics, Natural Philosophy, Astronomy, Chemistry, Mental and Moral Philosophy, Logic, Elements of Criticism, in reference to Language and the Fine Arts, Elocution, Natural Theology, Evidences of Christianity, and Sacred History.

In the Junior Department, Mr. Bryan B. Killikelly, late Vice Principal of a Collegiate School, in the city of New York, will give instructions in Orthography, Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, Grammar, Geography, Botany, Geology, Ancient and Modern History, Rhetoric, and the Latin and Greek languages.

In the Ornamental department, Mrs. Lacey, assisted by accomplished instructors, will give lessons in the French, and Italian languages, Vocal and Instrumental Music, Drawing, and Painting, in the style of several of the European, and Oriental Schools, Calisthenics, and the forms and elegancies of polished life.

The price for Board, General Superintendance, Fuel, Candlelight, Pew Rent, access to an extensive Library, instructions in Calesthenics, Orthography, Reading, Writing, Rudiments of Geography, and Arithmetic, and all the varieties of Needle Work, will be $30 per term. To this charge will be added, for instruction in any or in all of the higher branches taught in the Junior department, (except the Latin and Greek languages) $6; or instead thereof, in any or in all the branches of the Senior department, $8; French and Italian, each $8; Music, including the use of the instruments for practice, $13; Drawing, and Painting, $6; Bronzing and Painting, in the Oriental styles, $20. Or, if Parents prefer a more definite arrangement, Dr. Lacey will Board, and Instruct, in any, or in all the branches taught in the Institute, for $200, per annum, per scholar, they paying the amount in advance.

The Principal intends to establish, in the vicinity, and under his own general Superintendance, a school for small boys, where, with his own sons, they will be fitted for entrance into any college in the United States. The charge for board and tuition, in any or in all the branches of a finished English education will be $120 per annum, and for other branches proportionally moderate.

No scholar will be received for a less time than one term; and all bills must be paid one quarter in advance.

Each pupil is required to bring a Bible, Bed, and Bedding, Towels; Table spoon, Tea spoon, Knife and Fork.

Pupils will be permitted to attend any place of public worship their Parents may designate.

The Institute having been in operation four terms, and sustained two public examinations, Dr. Lacey submits, with particular satisfaction, the following spontaneous testimonial of its character, and results from Parents and friends of pupils in the Institute.

Pittsburgh, August 3, 1833.

TO THE REV. W. B. LACEY, D. D.—

Dear Sir—We have been so amply gratified by the late examination of your Female Collegiate Institute, that we feel it equally a pleasure and a duty to express our satisfaction, and to wish you such success in your enterprise as may remunerate you for your large expenditure, and, in some measure, compensate you for the unwearied application of your talents and learning to the cause of Education.

The examination was conducted with such minute and critical severity as served to test, to the utmost, the understanding of the pupils, and the extent of their acquisitions in their varied and interesting studies.

When it is taken into consideration that the number of pupils did not exceed fifty, and that three days were spent, almost without relaxation, in ascertaining their mental and moral improvement, the results must be considered as peculiarly gratifying to their parents and friends, and as reflecting the highest credit upon the Principal of the Institute and those to whom their instruction has been committed.

The examination embraced, in its range, the elementary, as well as the higher branches of elocution, Grammar, Geography, Arithmetic, Rhetoric, the elements of Moral Philosophy, Chemistry, Botany, Astronomy, Algebra, French, Music, and Calesthenic exercises.

In the whole course, whether in those matters that belong to the useful and essential branches, or those that may be termed the accomplishments and refinements of Education, care, attention, and talent, on the part of the instructors, and devotion and industry on the part of the pupils, were obvious. Peculiar interest was excited by the classes that had devoted their attention to Elocution and Rhetoric, by the highest class in French, whose translations from D'Agguessau, Racine, & L'Henriade, were subjects of just commendation; and by the young Ladies who had devoted their attention to Moral Philosophy, whose application of its principles to the Science of Government, and thorough knowledge of the Constitution of the United States, created feelings of mingled surprize and admiration in the bosoms of us all.

The class in Algebra, under the particular charge of Professor Aikin, evinced a knowledge of that most difficult branch of Mathematics, and also of Chemistry and Botany, entitling him and them to high approbation.

The Musical exhibition was extremely satisfactory, as evincing the capability of Mr Rupp, the Musical Professor, in that delightful accomplishment, and the rapid improvement of his pupils.

Without entering further into detail, sir, we express our entire satisfaction with the result of your system, and cannot forbear expressing a wish that the citizens of our wealthy, manufacturing metropolis, and our fellow citizens throughout the western states, who wish to afford to their daughters the benefits of a refined, accomplished, and useful education, at about one third of the expense that such an education would cost them in eastern cities, will confer their patronage upon your Institution. In addition to all the advantages as regards the improvement of mind and manners which an eastern Institution can afford, the location of your Institution, surrounded by scenes of picturesque beauty, with its groves, orchards, and gardens, its springs of pure water, and in the midst of a country which may be emphatically denominated the residence of health, would, of itself, operate as a strong inducement to parents who are disposed to send their children abroad for education to intrust them to your care.

I have been acquainted with the Institute from its commencement. Its pupils have been unusually healthy; indeed, the situation is one of the most salubrious which I know. At the time of the late examination, in a family of upwards of seventy persons, including the pupils, there was not one who was the subject of medical treatment.

PROSPECT HILL.

Literary & Scientific Institution.

PITTSBURGH, Pa.

ON the 1st of July, Mr. DANIEL STONE intends opening, near the City of Pittsburgh, an Institution for the instruction of boys. Its plan is to combine, as far as possible, the peculiar advantages of a domestic and public education.—The pupils, with the principal and assistants, will constitute one family, and be at all times under careful supervision. The Discipline will be mild, but strict, such as a father, solicitous for the welfare of his children, would exercise over them. It is believed that an appeal to reason, and the sense of honor and duty, will generally secure obedience. Coercive measures will, therefore, be adopted only in extreme cases.

The Course of Study will embrace the English, Latin, Greek, and French Languages; Arithmetic, Algebra, and Geometry; Geography and History—Ancient and Modern; Rhetoric, Composition, and Elocution; Natural Philosophy and Chemistry; Penmanship, Orthography, and Reading. Frequent examinations will be held, open to the friends and relations of the youths.

The Mode of Instruction will be thorough and critical, and no subject will be relinquished until fully understood. That the scholar's mind may become vigorous, active, and self-confident—prepared for the stern conflicts of life, and a fearless discharge of its duties, he will be encouraged to reason and decide for himself.

Each student will be required to attend such church as his parent or guardian shall designate.

To preserve health and elasticity of spirits, to check indolence, and promote industry among the students, they will be daily exercised in athletic sports.

Pupils will be admitted between the ages of Six and Sixteen. None can be received for less than one term.

The uniform Dress will consist of a cap, blue roundabout, with metal buttons, and blue pantaloons. Every article of clothing should be marked with the owner's name in full.

The Terms are two hundred dollars a year, payable quarterly in advance. This includes Tuition, Board, Lodging, Washing, Mending, Light, and Fuel.

The Vacations, after the present year, will be three—the 1st, of two weeks, from the 3d Wednesday in April; the 2d, of four weeks, from the 2d Wednesday in August; and one week at Christmas.

The Matron's department will be under the care of Mrs. Reynolds, of this city.

New Theatre, Pittsburgh.

THE Public is respectfully informed, that this ELEGANT NEW THEATRE, at present building, in Fifth Street, will be opened for the Season, under the management of the subscriber, with a Dramatic Company not surpassed by any in the Union, on Monday, the Second of September, 1833.

The building has been substantially erected, by those well known Mechanics, Messrs. Roseburg, Reynolds, Scott, & McCulloch, after a plan drawn by John Haviland, Esq., of Philadelphia, whose justly acquired fame as an Architect will be increased by the style and Beauty of the Present Edifice.

A first rate London Artist has been employed, for the last three months, in preparing the Dresses especially for this Theatre, which, in point of

ELEGANCE AND SPLENDOR,

Will equal, if not surpass those belonging to the Metropolitan Theatres of New York, or Philadelphia.

THE SCENERY

Has been designed and executed by Mr. J. R. Smith, a young Artist of great talent, and whose productions may challenge comparison with those of the most distinguished Scene Painters of the day.

THE MACHINERY

Has been entrusted to the care of Mr. Stafford, late of the Philadelphia Theatres, and the direction of the

MECHANICAL DEPARTMENT

Will be placed under the Superintendence of Mr. Hoffner, of the Chesnut Street Theatre, Philadelphia.

In addition to the exertions of the Regular Company, most of whom are advantageously known in the Eastern Theatres, the Manager has great pride and pleasure in informing the inhabitants of Pittsburgh and its vicinity, that he has engaged, at great expense, the celebrated American Tragedian

MR. E. FORREST,

Who will have the honor of appearing before them at an early period, of which due notice will be given. Negotiations have already been entered into with the most distinguished Performers of the American Stage, who will appear in rapid succession—among others,

MR. & MRS. HILSON,
MISS CLARA FISHER,
MRS. KNIGHT,
MR. J. R. SCOTT,

Also, Mr. PARSLOE, of the Theatre, Covent Garden, London, &c. &c. &c.

In making these arrangements, the subscriber has used every exertion in his power to render THE THEATRE a place of rational amusement—

"To raise the genius and to mend the heart;
Shew Virtue her own features;
Vice her own image;
The age and body of the time, his form and pressure."

And he throws himself confidently on the liberality of the citizens of Pittsburgh for support.

WESTERN UNIVERSITY

OF PENNSYLVANIA.

THE Classes in the Western University will open on Monday next, the 5th of August

Mathematics, Natural and Moral Philosophy, and all the branches of education for the Junior and Senior Classes, will be taught by the Provost of the Institution.

The Latin and Greek Languages will be taught by the Rev. Moses Kerr, Professor of Ancient Languages.

A Tutor is bespoke, who, in addition to the elements of the Latin language, will teach English Grammar, Geography, &c. He will be employed as soon as the state of the Institution requires his services.

Students who wish to study for a term or two, only, and who apply for Mathematics, Geography, the use of the Globes, &c., will study under the Provost.

Students, from the country, of good character and behavior, can board themselves in the College Building. Boarding here can be obtained as cheap as in any of the neighboring colleges in the western country; and there is excellent convenience for studying, and healthful rooms for Dormitories.

Strict attention will be paid to the government and morals of the Students; and the utmost exertions will be made by the Faculty to advance all of them in literature and science.

A weekly report of the behavior of the Students, in the College and Grammar School, will be forwarded to parents and guardians, that they may have a perfect knowledge of the standing and progress of the students whom they put under our care.

The time of commencement, and of bestowing degrees, will be, as usual, on the last Friday of the month of June.

Price of tuition, $25 per annum, paid quarterly.

MILL AND CROSS-CUT SAWS.

THE Subscriber has the satisfaction to say to the public, and his friends, that he has connected with his other business, the manufactury of Mill and Cross Cut Saws; and can furnish supplies to merchants and others: he believes them to be equal to any ever used in the western country—the experience of the workmen employed, with the known good qualities of the steel, justifies him in warranting the article to any who may be disposed to patronize western industry.

Z. PACKARD.

Northern Liberties, Pittsburgh, } tf

DOCTOR ROBERT'S

☞ WELCH MEDICAMENTUM. ☜

FOR the cure of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Jaundice, Cholic, Fever and Ague, Dysentery, Headach, Loss of Appetite, Flatulence, Hypochondria, Hysterics, Dropsical Complaints, and Heartburn, It also prevents all Bilious disorders, and removes habitual Costiveness, Asthma, Strangury, Gravel, Rheumatism, Gout, and Impurities of the Blood.

A person who uses this Medicamentum will not require the use of the lancet, or any means of the healing art. It restores and revives the animal spirits, invigorates the system, removes nervous tremors, obtunds rheumatic and anthritic pains, and prevents their return. It cleanses the stomach of all morbid humors, which cause indigestion, acidities, headach, and lowness of spirits; cures all bilious disorders, and all cholics of the stomach and bowels, almost immediately; inspires cheerfulness; gives comfort to the dropsical; takes away palpitation of the heart; gives circulation to the blood; restores bloom to the sallow or sickly cheek, and plumpness to the meagre habit; purges without pain, and banishes all cause of fever of every kind. It acts on the stomach, that great reservoir of the human system, a diseased state of which causes all diseases. No alteration in the usual habits of life is required, but the abstaining from distilled ardent spirits.

CERTIFICATE,

From Rev. Derick Lansing, D. D., Pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church in Utica.

UTICA, Jan. 6, 1830.

To Dr. Hitchcock.—Dear Sir: I have always been one of the number of those who have placed little confidence in nostrums or specifics, and for this reason, although I saw your advertisement of the Welch Medicamentum, I could not bring my mind to consent to use it. My sufferings, from indigestion, during the past summer, were so severe, as materially to affect my comfort, and my capacity for usefulness. I have reason to thank you, sir, that, on hearing of the state of my health, you kindly sent me your Medicamentum. I have taken it faithfully, and with entire success. I have not been visited with one of those turns of distress, which before were weekly periodical, since I began to take your valuable medicine. Could I receive the same relief which I have hitherto experienced, on condition of taking it for life, I should cheerfully comply with such condition. Your's, very truly, D. C. LANSING.

ANTI-DYSPEPTIC ELIXER.

ONE of the most agreeable and efficacious Medicines ever discovered for the permanent cure of those chronic states of derangement of the stomach, constituting that miserable disease called Dyspepsia.

The basis of this Elixer is vegetables, and perfectly innocent in its operation; it destroys that sour state of the stomach, the instant it is taken, and stops the morbid secretion, by giving strength to the muscular fibre of that important organ, by which means the peristaltic motion of the intestines is increased, and the costiveness obviated; a new action is given to the system, which puts an end to a train of distressing nervous sensations.

Another form of the disease in which the Elixer is admirably calculated to relieve, is the decline of fever, where the stomach will not bear the ordinary strengthening medicines indicated in such cases, it has the surprising effect of giving vigor, and restoring the natural secretions of the body, without increasing the febrile state. Not the least danger is to be apprehended from exposure to cold, while under the use of this medicine, nor will it interrupt necessary employment of the patient a single hour.

☞ A number of cases of cures performed by the Anti-Dyspeptic Elixer in the vicinity of Pittsburgh can be given.

GEO. W. CARPENTER'S

COMPOUND SYRUP OF LIVERWORT,

A SAFE and Valuable Medicine for Coughs, Spitting of Blood, Consumption, and Liver Complaints.

Most of the medicines made use of for the above diseases are of a stimulating nature, composed generally of Resins and Balsams, in alcoholic solutions, which, although sometimes givingt emporary relief, in almost every instance where they are freely used, aggravate the disease, and reduce the strength of the patient.

This article possesses superior advantages over these preparations, its action being of a tonic, invigorating and strengthening nature, thus overcoming the disease by promoting expectoration, and gradully increasing the strength of the patient, and thus, without being attended with any unpleasant effects: it also agrees with the stomach, in all cases, and is a pleasant medicine to take.

PATENT PLANING MACHINE.—The right to use this valuable machine, invented and patented by William Woodworth, and known as Woodworth's Patent Planing Machine, may be obtained on application to the subscriber for the counties of Allegheny, Butler, Beaver, Washington, Green, Fayette, Somerset, Cambria, Indiana, Jefferson, Clearfield, M'Kean, Warren, Venango, Mercer, Crawford, and Erie, in the State of Pennsylvania. That part of Maryland lying west of the Blue Ridge; all that part of Virginia lying west of the Blue Ridge, except the county of Ohio. The whole of the state of Ohio except the counties of Hamilton, Butler, and Montgomery. The whole of the state of Kentucky, except the counties of Jefferson, Boone, Oldham, Gallatin, and Campbell. The whole of Indiana, except the counties of Floyd, Clark, Jefferson, Dearborn, and Switzerland. The whole of the state of Illinois, and the territory of Michigan. Rights to use the machine in that part of the United States, named above, will be sold by the single county or in larger districts. As it is presumed that no one will purchase without seeing the machine at work, a description of it is deemed unnecessary. Should any person, however, wish to purchase, and find it inconvenient to visit the places where it is in operation, a machine will be furnished, warranted to plane, tongue and groove, and bring to an exact width and thickness, a white pine board of 12 feet long, and of any width from 1 to 14 inches, in one minute and ten seconds, or an oak board of the same dimensions in 2 minutes and 10 seconds. Machines may be seen at work in the cities of New Orleans, Washington, Philadelphia, New York, Boston, and others at the south and east, at Wheeling, Virginia, and at the saw mill of Messrs. Irwin & Herron, in this city.

Persons desiring to purchase will have the certificates of scientific and practical men who have seen it at work, in the different places in which it has been put up, forwarded to them. They give their opinion as to the great value of the invention, state the time they have seen boards dressed by this machine, and describe the quality of the work as compared with that performed by hand labor.

VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE.

THE Subscriber offers for sale the farm on which he lives, in Washington county, on Pigeon creek, one mile south of Williamsport, on the Monongahela river, to which there is a perfectly level road. This farm contains near 400 acres, the greater part of which is first rate land. There is on the premises a Brick Dwelling House, a Merchant mill, in good repair, a new saw mill, a stone still house, 35 by 40 feet; a salt works is also in operation, and worked to advantage; about 150 acres of land cleared and under good fence. There is on the premises three small tenements for the accommodation of families. This tract is well timbered, and abounds with stone coal and springs of water, both of the best quality.

To a person wishing to embark in a manufacturing business, and possessing capital, this would be a very desirable situation, having the advantage of both water power from Pigeon creek, and banks of the very best coal near to the works, and easy of access, and its vicinity to so navigable a river, where articles of any kind are so cheaply transported to Pittsburgh.

For further particulars, apply to James P. Stuart, Merchant, Wood street, Pittsburgh, or to the subscriber on the premises.

TRAVELLERS.

THE LINE OF STAGES between Chambersburgh and Baltimore, on the Somerset and Mountpleasant route, has been doubled, and now runs DAILY, (Mondays excepted,) leaving Chambersburgh at day-light in the morning, and arriving in Baltimore, early the same evening.

Passengers reach Philadelphia, in this way, the second afternoon, from Chambersburgh, without the loss of any rest; taking the splendid STEAM BOAT LINES, which set out at 6 o'clock in the morning, [via CHESAPEAKE AND DELAWARE CANAL, a work well worth the trip to see.]

REESIDE, Owner.

In all cases where the passengers desire to reach Baltimore in time for the 5 o'clock steam-boat to Philadelphia, they can do so by leaving Chambersburgh at one o'clock in the morning, or immediately after the arrival of the Western Mail Stage. In this way, they arrive in Philadelphia, by eight o'clock the second morning, from Chambersburgh.

☞ When a load offers, the stage will run on Mondays. April 23, 1830.—tf.

TYPE FOUNDRY.

HAVING purchased of Mr. Richard Ronaldson, his long established and very extensive Type Foundry, the subscribers have formed a co-partnership for the purpose of continuing said business, and for the convenience of their friends and patrons, have removed their establishment to a more central part of the city. As it is their intention to keep on hand a good assortment of the best type, and to make such additions and improvements as the taste of the trade and the wants of the country require, they flatter themselves that this establishment will merit a large share of patronage. They have now several founts on hand, which can be furnished at a few hours' notice, and are prepared to make founts of all weights and sizes, from Pearl to 22 lines Pica, including a variety of Ornamental Letter. Their assortment of Cuts, Dashes, Brass Rule, and other Ornaments, will be found to be very extensive, of which specimens will be forwarded to Printers as soon as they can be prepared.

Printing Presses of every description, Printing Ink of the most approved qualities, Composing Sticks, Brass and Common Galleys, Chases, Imposing Stones, Cases, Paper and Press Boards, Standing Presses, Furniture, together with a complete assortment of all articles used in a Printing Office, will be kept constantly on hand.

Small founts, suitable for Book Binders, in great variety, may be had when called for.

Orders from all parts in the Union will be promptly and most carefully attended to, and particularly in supplying sorts for all founts furnished by their predecessors, Binny & Ronaldson, and Richard Ronaldson.
